Project 3 Open Studio

PLEASE SIT with your project team, read through the rest of this document, and get straight to work.

Today's Agenda

Today is an open studio session for working on Project 3. Take advantage of this precious time with your teammate.

Project 3 Punch List

Create your own checklist of the tasks remaining to be done in the project. Indicate who is responsible for each task and how you plan to prioritize the tasks (e.g., required versus nice-to-have).

Reflection Questions

Name one skill you gained or thing you learned in this class.

What is something you did for this class you are proud of?

Name a system or phenomenon you would want to model if we had a fourth project.

Next Steps

Before the final event next Friday, please do the following things:

☐ Write your name here: _____

☐ Write the name(s) of your project partner(s) here: _____

☐ By tonight: Scan this worksheet.

☐ By Sunday night: One member of your team should submit your final computational essay as a link to a file on GitHub and as a
